W. G. STEDMAN, City Sexton Moss Ferrans.-One hundred and twenty ave more Fenians arrived by the Columbu train of yesterday, direct from Cincinnati They were more thoroughly organized than any previous arrival, many of them having the green jackets, the belt and cartridge book and the haversack and canteen. Lik all the rest, they were under good discipline, and were quiet and orderly. A case or two of disturbance occurred, but they were caused by outside interference The men were not equal to the first arrivals in appearance and intelligence, many being

oung and but poorly fitted to endure cam paigning. Nearly all the older ones bore uumistakeable marks of service. This party and those who arrived by the morning train left for Buffalo last night. ----CRANGE IN THE BANKING HOUSE OF MASON, EVERETT & Co.-Among the local changes in our business community we notice the withdrawal from the above named firm of Mesers Mason and Carpenter, who have disposed of their interest to Horace P. Weddell, Esq. In entering upon a new field Mr. Weddell carries the best wishes of his host of friends in this vicinity, and the new copartnership must add greatly to the weight of this long established house, which has enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most substantial banking establishments in our State.
